

ELECTRONIC GAMBLING MACHINES: WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

MEC Horse Wizard, now at Santa Anita Racetrack

"Instant Racing" Machine,
Proposed at Santa Anita Racetrack

Las Vegas style
Video Slot Machine

Here is how one horse racing expert characterized the industry's description of Instant Racing Machines:

"The multi-colored, six-foot electronic machine features flashing buttons, blinking lights, a touch screen, an ever changing digital "jackpot" announcement, a big tray at the bottom, even that muffled jingling noise that somehow suggests unbelievable riches.

But [instant racing machines are] not a slot machine.

Got that?" [1]

[1] Instant Racing: mania, it's not; Joe Clancy Jr., Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred, March 2000.